

Fingerspelling Resources

Fingerspelling is a great resource for all classrooms, especially those with students who sign. Consider incorporating fingerspelling and common classroom signs with your whole class to foster engagement. As your students' language grows and develops, use chunking when fingerspelling to show syllables or common morphemes.

- Fingerspelling Video

Learn the ASL Alphabet from this helpful video on YouTube.

- Fingerspelling Poster

Printable poster for your classroom

- ASL alphabet coloring sheet

Download a copy of this coloring sheet, provided by Crayola.com.

- Fingerspelling Resource Packet

Free ASL Alphabet Resource Pack to download from andnextcomesl.com.

Stacey Tatera

Deaf Education Specialist
Arkansas Department of Education
Office of Special Education
stacey.tatera@ade.arkansas.gov

GET IN TOUCH!

